Hannes Snellman is a premier Nordic law firm focusing on significant transactions and complex dispute resolution. In addition to unique assignments, we offer our employees an opportunity to work with sharp-minded professionals in an atmosphere of inclusiveness.

What We are Looking for

We are looking for ambitious law students with a genuine interest in business law, drive and an eagerness to learn. Are you committed, service-oriented, positive and looking to get an invaluable insight into the work of a Nordic law firm? If so, then we think you will fit in perfectly with us. Our ideal candidate would be a law student who has completed at least 150 study credits before applying. In order to qualify, you must also be fluent in English and Finnish.

What We Offer

As an Associate Trainee you will have an excellent opportunity to join our firm for a fixed 4-month period to familiarise yourself with the versatile profession of an attorney. The work description for an Associate Trainee is similar to that of a newly qualified associate lawyer and you will carry out research, gather information and prepare draft documentation. This time round, we are looking for full-time trainees for the following five practice groups: M&A, Finance, IP & TMT, Tax or Competition. For us, it is important that you feel welcome and included at Hannes Snellman and have an opportunity to thrive on a professional level. We will provide support by coaching you in order to facilitate your development and you will have an assigned tutor within the work community. Another benefit is the opportunity to attend HS Academy, Hannes Snellman's internal training program offering regular courses in specific legal and professional subjects.

Our Associate Trainee programmes start in January, May and September and we are now welcoming applications for the period starting in September 2017. However, we consider each candidate individually and we may agree on a different starting date separately. The application period ends on 15 March 2017. Please note that applicants will be interviewed on a rolling basis throughout the recruitment process and, therefore, we recommend submitting your application as soon as possible.

Join Us

This is your opportunity to join us! Please submit your application, CV, high school and matriculation examination diplomas and transcript of studies. Remember to state in your application which of the following practice groups (M&A, Finance, IP & TMT, Tax or Competition) you are most interested in.
