

Krogerus is a premier business law firm whose practice covers a broad spectrum of transactional, dispute resolution and regulatory matters. The firm has a particularly strong focus in the energy, finance, food and beverage, healthcare, real estate, technology and telecommunications sectors. We are regularly retained in some of the most challenging and high-profile assignments in the Finnish market.

We are now recruiting

Legal trainee for our Turku office

We are now looking for a law student with 2–3 years of studies to join our Turku office from January to May 2019. You will work closely with our lawyers and assistants, and your role includes various entry-level tasks in a broad range of domestic assignments, with a particular focus on insolvency and business law matters. The position is part-time (2-4 days per week), but occasionally your input might be needed full-time.

We look for candidates with an ability to co-operate with others, hands-on enthusiasm and a drive for excellence. We appreciate strong IT and communication skills, especially in Finnish and English. The key to succeeding in the trainee position is a combination of proactivity, flexibility, preciseness and ability to work under tight deadlines.

What we offer, in return, is the chance to gain valuable work experience from one of the leading corporate law firms in Finland. You will be given challenging tasks in a broad range of assignments focusing on Finnish markets and you get to develop your skills in a team of dedicated and talented professionals.

In addition to building important connections for your future, we also provide you with professional development through trainings at Krogerus Academy, as well as the chance to spend time with your peers at company events.
