What We Are Looking For

Are you a law student in the final years of your studies? Do you wish to gain invaluable work experience in a Nordic law firm? If so, then we think you will fit in perfectly with us. We are looking for our next associate trainees, and our ideal candidate would be a committed law student who has completed at least 150 study credits before applying. We hope you are ambitious, genuinely interested in business law, and fluent in English and Finnish.

Your tasks will include carrying out research, gathering information and preparing draft documentation, and you will work full-time for a fixed period of four months in one of our practice groups: M&A, Finance, Real Estate, Tax, Dispute Resolution, Competition & Procurement, Environment & Natural Resources and Employment.

We are now welcoming applications for the autumn 2019 period starting on 9 September 2019.

What You Will Get

As an associate trainee, you will have an excellent opportunity to familiarise yourself with the versatile profession of an attorney. For us, it is important that you feel welcome and included at Hannes Snellman and have an opportunity to thrive on a professional level. Before diving into your duties, you will participate in a comprehensive orientation. You will also have an assigned tutor within the work community. During your time at Hannes Snellman, you are welcomed to take part in our mentoring breakfasts, trainee evenings and Hannes Academy trainings on various legal and professional subjects. Most importantly, you will experience what it would be like to work as a newly qualified associate lawyer in a Nordic law firm, since the work descriptions of an associate trainee and a newly qualified associate lawyer are similar.

"My traineeship at Hannes Snellman has provided me with a hands-on experience of the international business law scheme. I have been presented with the opportunity to be involved in several large projects and this has enabled me to develop as a young legal professional. I have felt right at home since the beginning of my traineeship, mostly attributable to the warm atmosphere and exceptional professionals I have the privilege of working with daily. It has truly amazed me how much one can learn in a matter of months!"
